

Irvine Swim League 2014 Todd K. Larsen ILS Coach of the Year

Kyle Kim-E, Park Paseo Northstars

We had many wonderful nominations for the Todd K. Larsen Coach of the Year award this year, but one stood out from the rest. Coach Kyle Kim-E, head coach for the Park Paseo Northstars. Coach Kyle is passionate about carrying on the traditions and spirit of the Northstars team. He makes sure every swimmer gets better individually while having fun doing it. This is what creates a life long love for swimming. It is why he is so valuable to the Northstars team and ISL.

Kyle is an alumni of the Northstars and has been their head coach for four years. He has done excellent work for the swim team and he is well respected by their families and the community. He has consistently exceeded expectations and has gone above and beyond for the benefit of the team.

He has organized Fun Fridays for the team on his own time. He coordinates dinners with the other coaches, including the youth volunteers, to debrief after the meets and talk about what the coaches could have done better. He and his staff have seen 5 Park Paseo records broken this year, including a relay record that had stood for 20 years.

His interests outside of the swim team include the charity he founded while a student at Chapman University, Wells for Well Being (www.wellsforwellbeing.org.) Kyle and his team construct wells and deliver water filtration systems in Cambodia. He has spent the last two spring breaks in Cambodia personally overseeing construction and relief efforts.

"Kyle is respectful to all his swimmers, the team parents, and his fellow coaches. In addition, Kyle is an excellent role model for our swimmers. Along with coaching, Kyle has started his own philanthropic organization. Kyle has been a tremendous coach for Park Paseo. I believe that Kyle Kim-E embodies what Park Paseo strives to teach all their swimmers; a strong work ethic, respect, and compassion. He is a tremendous coach and person and I would strongly recommend him for the Coach of the Year award." ~ Vivian Sellwood, Northstars Parent

A Message From The Park Paseo Northstars

Thank you for supporting our Association's swim team, the Park Paseo Northstars! Your support has really shown the Irvine community what a caring, wonderful, family-friendly neighborhood Park Paseo is to live in. We had a great season and wanted to share with you all of the amazing things our team achieved this summer.

★ We had a great turnout in high school volunteer swim coaches this year! Out of the 8 volunteers, many started out as little ones on the team and this year helped our new swimmers on technique and sportsmanship, all while earning high school credits and leadership experience.

★ Several Park Paseo records were broken this year by some very hard-working and talented young swimmers: Claire Fu (8), Sydney Lin (10), and relay team Jonathan Miller, Esteban Torres, Kayla Constandse, and Jonathan Kuo.

★ We had amazing coaches who were Northstars swimmers-turned-great role models for a new generation of swimmers. Thank you coaches Kyle Kim-E, Morgan Sprosty, Kacie Hogan, and Brandon Thomas.

★ Our head coach Kyle Kim-E was the recipient of the Irvine Swim League Todd K. Larsen Coach of the Year Award, thanks to letters written in by parents and swimmers praising Kyle for being a great mentor in and out of the pool to our 130 swimmers. This is an award given to one person out of the entire Irvine Swim League for their outstanding leadership.

★ Park Paseo placed 2nd in Division III at the ISL Championships held August 16th at Woollett Aquatics Center. Congratulations Northstars!

★ Thank you to all our parent volunteers who make the Northstars swim team a fun and stress-free place to be during the summer months with the kids!

★ Thank you to all our team sponsors, especially Park Paseo residents Murray and Amy Falk. We are seeking coaches for the 2015 season! Contact our team president if interested at joeann70@cox.net.
